The Book Author Luncheon Scholarship Committee will be gearing up with their kickoff meeting on January 5, 2026, at the Essex Library at 1 p.m. This is our main fund-raising event. The Book Author Luncheon is scheduled for Saturday, April 11, 2026, at the Saybrook Inn.

SCHOLARSHIP

All-In-One Applicant Submission

Management Software - Reviewr

Following the latest grant application cycle and receiving 45 submissions for only 8 grants, the pressing need to enhance our application process was highlighted. Improvements would help us achieve more consistency and fairness, as well as make the collection, review, organization, and distribution of applicant documents more efficient. The coordinator managing applications has been inundated by the volume of paperwork, as each applicant submits an application form, two references, a resume, and transcripts—often arriving in assorted formats from multiple sources. Based on consultations with peer organizations, Reviewr, a comprehensive submission management software, was strongly recommended.

After meeting with the Reviewr management team, viewing a demonstration of their product, and speaking with the scholarship committee, who unanimously supported moving forward with a partnership, we recommended to the Education and Scholarship Board approval of a one-year contract with Reviewr to develop a new application, enhance our processes, and deliver timely feedback to applicants. A small team will begin working with Reviewr in January to create our new application and processes for this year's grant applicants.

Scholarship and Grant funding

The Education and Scholarship Program Board extends its sincere appreciation to the members who have made generous contributions through Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs) this fiscal year to support our 2026 Scholarship and Grant Funding. We gratefully acknowledge MaryAnn Iadarola, Gloria Gery, Linda Frigon, Deb DeHertogh, and Eileen Newgarden for their valuable support.

Linda Frigon, ESP Treasurer

SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Scholarship Selection Committee has invited the 2025-2026 grant recipients to attend the January Tea on Saturday the 10th at 1pm at the Vicky Duffy Pavilion formerly known as the Saybrook Point Pavilion. This is a good opportunity for our members to meet the grant recipients and for them to meet you. We will be presenting them with the second half of their grant money for successfully completing their fall semester and enrolling in the spring semester. They usually stay for the trivia which is great fun.

The committee will meet in early January to finalize the new application process.

Olga Saubermann,
Director of Scholarships

LCV/TPEP UPDATE

In recent communication with Professor Anna Terwiel, Co-Director of TPEP, we learned that her book, Prison Abolition for Realists, has just been released by University of Minnesota Press. If anyone cares to order a copy, go to z.umn.edu/akqz and use the code MN93910 to obtain a 30% discount, available until Feb 1, 2026. Per copy cost $17.47 plus $9.42 for shipping and handling.

TPEP will run a course at YCI entitled Philosophy and the Self, starting in January. Anna explained that TPEP has applied for and received grant funding from various organizations but was still seeking $2,000 to cover the cost of the course. After careful consideration of plans for education grants in the coming year, ESP approved the donation of the $2,000.

INTEREST GROUPS

AFTERNOON BOOK GROUP

Date: Wednesday, January 7

Time: 1:00pm

Location: via Zoom

Book: Daughters of the Bamboo Grove: From China to America, A True Story of Abduction, Adoption, and Separated Twins by Barbara Demick

The LCV Afternoon Book Group met on Wednesday, December 3rd to talk about How To Read a Book by Monica Wood, a novel about the meeting of three characters: a woman who leads a prison reading group, the imprisoned woman who killed a kindergarten teacher in a drunk driving incident, and the husband of the woman who was killed. Many thanks to Judith Slisz who led our discussion.

Judith explained some background information about the author who is a prolific novelist and playwright, winning many regional New England prizes for her writing. We talked about the characterization of the three main characters as well as the women in the prison book group, the characters' family members, and their coworkers. One fascinating aspect of the plot is a workplace in a college laboratory studying cognition and speech of exotic birds; the author worked with a Harvard animal intelligence scientist for this part of the plot. We were also interested in the parallels to the LCV sponsorship of education for women at York Correctional Institution. Thanks again, Judith, for a memorable discussion!

To look ahead to our next books:

Wednesday, January 7th—Daughters of the Bamboo Grove: From China to America, A True Story of Abduction, Adoption, and Separated Twins—

Barbara Demick—nonfiction—The story of twin sisters torn apart by China's one-child policy and the rise of international adoption. The journalist/ author (who also wrote Eat the Buddha about Tibet which the Afternoon Book Group read recently) investigated the abductions of Chinese children, some of whom were adopted by American families who thought they had been abandoned. She traces the fate of one set of twins—one who remains in China, and the other who lives in Texas.

Wednesday, February 4th—Twist—Colum McCann—fiction—A novel about a journalist who is embedded on a ship tasked with repairing undersea fiber-optic cables as it moves from South Africa across the western Atlantic, revealing the fragility of the vital information links and the skilled engineers and divers who repair them. (We read Apeirogon by McCann two years ago.)

We hope you can join us soon! Happy reading!

EVENING BOOK GROUP

Date: Tuesday, January 27

Time: 7:00pm

Location: Via Zoom

Book: House of Spirits by Isabelle Allende

The Evening book group had a fun and informational discussion on Tuesday, December 16 at the home of Jane Gould, Marriage at Sea: A True Story of Love, Obsession, and Shipwreck by Sophie Elmhirst. Jane G both hosted and led the discussion. The group was amazed at the ability of the couple to survive for four months on a raft in the middle of the Pacific Ocean. What surprised us even more was that, after the Baileys raised money to buy a new boat, they went on to successfully sail to Patagonia from Great Britain. It was a story of resilience in the face of adversity! Many thanks to Jane for leading and for the research she did to add to the story of Maralyn and Maurice Bailey.

The book group will meet again on Tuesday, January 27 at 7 pm on Zoom. Deb DeHertogh will lead the discussion of House of Spirits by Isabelle Allende. Mary Jane, as host, will send out a Zoom invitation to book group members. If any other LCV member is interested in attending, please email me at mjposct@comcast.net.
